Single Statements:

Tautology: Necessarily true statement. True in all possible cases.

Self-Contradiction: Necessarily false. False in all possible cases.

Contingent: True in some possible cases; false in others.

Multiple Statements:

Equivalent: Identical truth values in all possible cases.

Contradictory: Opposite truth values in all possible cases.

Consistent: Both statements are true in at least one possible case.